Marine Legal Protection Insurance

Important information regarding changes

Whilst a number of minor amendments have been made to the above policy wording, there are a number of key changes and these are noted as follows:

Territorial Limits, Contract Disputes Claims wording, we stated:

The Adviser must:-

- i.) Confirm in writing that he will enable You to comply with his obligations under this insurance.
- ii.) Agree with Us the rate at which his costs will be calculated. If no agreement is reached the Law Society will be asked to nominate an Adviser and this nomination shall be binding.

These have now been deleted and replaced with:

The Adviser must represent You in accordance with Our standard conditions of appointment available on request.

Changes to other terms and conditions:

Condition 4, Reasonable Prospects, this has been amended to read as follows:

Prospects of Success

At any time We may, but only when supported by independent legal advice, form the view that You do not have a more than 50% chance of winning the case and achieving a positive outcome. If so, We may decline support or any further support. Examples of a positive outcome are:

- a) Being able to recover the amount of money at stake
- b) Being able to enforce a judgment
- c) Being able to achieve an outcome which best serves Your interests.
